RESERVE

BUILD YOUR OWN LEGACY ON THE
Same Land Where We Created Ours.

SPACIOUS WOODDED LOTS.
A PREMIER GROUP OF CUSTOM BUILDERS.
And A Bond To The Community
That's Been Forged For Generations.

Wexford Reserve was born out of the legacy of the Paschal family, whose lives are steeped in the history and lore of Wake Forest and its storied institutions. A scholar, historian, writer and philanthropist, George Washington Paschal was born in 1869 and devoted his life to preserving, promoting and chronicling the town and its culture. Today, he and his descendants continue to be ingrained in the history and community of Wake Forest.

Wexford Reserve is rising from the land that was once the old family farm, where crops and timber were grown, and generations of Paschals fished and hunted on the pristine property. Now, we're inviting new families to build their own legacies and connections to this historic, thriving community. Come visit Wexford Reserve, and start writing your own history.
